Petroleum Centre Daily Record.

Pet. Centre, Tuesday, March 16.

A WITTY BENZINEIST.—A well known individual, a resident of the Second Ward, a clever fellow, and somewhat of a wag, on Saturday evening indulged in too much "benzine" and became "sea-sick," and while making tracks for home, was obliged to anchor on a street corner and "heave." Holding on a lamp post, he poured forth a "tremendous cascade, fearful to behold." A sympathizing friend passing, feelingly inquired: "Hello, what's the matter, are you sick?" The victim turned upon him a look in which was concentrated a perfect avalanche of reproachful contempt, and blurted out in the intervals between his copious upheavings, "D'ye s-e-p-o-o-s-e-I—l'm d-o-i-n' this for fun?"

Rev. W. H. Milburn, the "blind preacher," has been once successfully operated upon for the restoration of his eye sight, in Germany, but the inflammation that followed, made it necessary to postpone for some months the final operation, which will give him sight. Meanwhile he has returned from Berlin to Paris, and is to preach and lecture before the Americans who are there congregated.

It is said that Charles Reade brought his recent libel suit against Sweetzer, of the Round Table, merely to advertise his work.
